About University

Guru Nanak Dev University was established in Amritsar on November 24, 1969 to mark the 500th birth anniversary of Sri Guru Nanak Dev Ji. Ever since its inception, the University is striving to become an Institution of excellence in academics, research, sports, and cultural activities. For its relentless efforts in this direction, it has been conferred the status of "University with Potential for Excellence" by UGC and accredited with "A++" grade (highest level as per modified criteria) by NAAC. It has also been granted "Category One" status, the only University to earn this elite status in the region of Punjab and Chandigarh. Recent survey of 'India Today' has ranked the University at 16th place in the top 50 universities of the country. Continuous efforts to make it "Zero Waste Campus" has earned it the status of the second cleanest higher educational institutions in the country in the category of Government Universities by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Govt. of India. The University is successfully providing conducive environment to grow and prosper in studies to twenty thousand students in various faculties at the University Campuses and Constituent Colleges.

About Centre

The Human Resource Development Centre (previously known as Academic Staff College), Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar was established in 1987 following introduction of the scheme by the University Grants Commission in 1987. Since its inception, it has been attracting teachers from all over India, rather than from a specific region and has become a platform where the Guru Nanak Dev University's academic community shares its knowledge, insights and ideas with the larger academic community of the country on a reciprocal basis.
