About University

Guru Nanak Dev University was established in Amritsar on November 24, 1969 to mark the 500th birth anniversary of Sri Guru Nanak Dev Ji. Ever since its inception, the University is striving to become an Institution of excellence in academics, research, sports, and cultural activities. For its relentless efforts in this direction, it has been conferred the status of “University with Potential for Excellence” by UGC and accredited with "A++" grade (highest level as per modified criteria) by NAAC. It has also been granted “Category One” status, the only University to earn this elite status in the region of Punjab and Chandigarh. Recent survey of 'India Today' has ranked the University at 16th place in the top 50 universities of the country. Continuous efforts to make it “Zero Waste Campus” has earned it the status of the second most cleanest higher educational institutions in the country in the category of Government Universities by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Govt. of India. The University is successfully providing conducive environment to grow and prosper in studies to twenty thousand students in various faculties at the University Campuses and Constituent Colleges. In addition to the green campus, excellent architecture, state-of-the-art infrastructure in well-equipped laboratories, contemporary workrooms for research and teaching, the students are provided with the facility of online admissions, online counseling for State level admissions and online fee payments. A well-developed placement cell assures employment security to its students. International and national institutional collaborations for courses, research projects and conferences make its students highly competent. The University also engages the students in a variety of sports, cultural and extracurricular activities.

About Centre

The Human Resource Development Centre (previously known as Academic Staff College), Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar was established in 1987 following introduction of the scheme by the University Grants Commission. Since its inception, it has been attracting teachers from all over India, rather than from a specific region and has become a platform where the Guru Nanak Dev University's academic community shares its knowledge, insights and ideas with the larger academic community of the country on a reciprocal basis. The Centre has achieved high standards of excellence in its working, based on team work of a small but committed, dedicated and competent group of teaching and non-teaching staff.
