About the University

Guru Nanak Dev University was established in Amritsar on November 24, 1969 to mark the 500th birth anniversary of Sri Guru Nanak Dev Ji. Ever since its inception, the University is striving to become an Institution of excellence in academics, research, sports, and cultural activities. For its relentless efforts in this direction, it has been conferred the status of "University with Potential for Excellence" by UGC and accredited with "A++" grade (highest level as per modified criteria) by NAAC. It has also been granted with "Category One" status, the only University to earn this elite status in the region of Punjab and Chandigarh.

A Recent survey of 'India Today' has ranked the University at 16th place in the top 50 universities of the country. Continuous efforts to make it "Zero Waste Campus" has earned it the status of the second most cleanest higher educational institution in the country in the category of Government Universities by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Govt. of India. The University is successfully providing conducive environment to grow and prosper in studies to twenty thousand students in various faculties at the University Campuses and Constituent Colleges. In addition to the green campus, excellent architecture, state-of-the-art infrastructure in well-equipped laboratories, contemporary workrooms for research and teaching, the students are also provided with the facility of online admissions, online counseling for State level admissions and online fee payments. A well-developed placement cell assures employment security to its students. International and national institutional collaborations for courses, research projects and conferences make its students highly competent. The University also engages the students in a variety of sports, cultural and extracurricular activities.

About the Centre

The Human Resource Development Centre (previously known as Academic Staff College), Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar was established in 1987 with the introduction of the scheme by the University Grants Commission in 1987. Since its inception, it has been attracting teachers from all over India, rather than from a specific region and has become a platform where the Guru Nanak Dev University's academic community shares its knowledge, insights and ideas with the larger academic community of the country on a reciprocal basis.

Over the years, high standards of excellence in working has been achieved by the initiatives taken by small but a committed and competent group of teaching and non-teaching staff. The efforts made by the staff are academically and socially relevant. In this globalized era, teachers are provided with higher learning, excellent academic standards and pedagogical tools. We are constantly trying to keep pace with the constant flow of information and knowledge along with the Efforts being put to update the knowledge base and outlook of the teachers at regular intervals.
